Learning Persian at International Center for Teaching Persian to Non-Persian Speakers is more than just a language course, it is also an opportunity for you to discover Iran, the culture and customs of its people, and experience somethings new.

50 years’ experience in teaching Persian as a foreign language and teacher training

Special teaching methodology and modern educational utilities and equipment

Intensive and superintensive courses and also long-term, mid-term, short-term based on learner needs

Easy enrolment process with affordable fees

International certification at the end of each level

Fully coordinated courses, you can pick up where you left off at any time and at any other center, which we have a cooperation with and multimedia self-learning opportunities on our website

Registration

It is enough to fill out the registration form and provide a copy of your passport first page and send them to ctpl@um.ac.ir

You can find it in our website: ctpl.um.ac.ir

Mashhad is the second largest city in Iran. Ferdowsi University of Mashhad founded in 1949 and is the largest and the oldest university in the East of Iran.

Learning Persian at International Center for Teaching Persian to Non-Persian Speakers is more than just a language course, it is also an opportunity for you to discover Iran, the culture and customs of its people, and experience somethings new.

Questions?

If you have further questions or suggestions, please do not hesitate to contact our center via email or our website.

CONTACTS

Ferdowsi University of Mashhad, Iran
Phone: +98 51 38804352
E-mail: ctpl@um.ac.ir
Website: ctpl.um.ac.ir